Remember to build confidence in your players through constructive criticism. Correct mistakes in a quiet friendly manner. Little Leaguers are receptive to instruction and ideas; building their confidence through friendly persuasion will work wonders. The League hereby adopts, as a general rule, that no volunteer or paid personnel, including but not limited to those volunteers who participate as a coach, manager or umpire, may take the field, enter the dugout or otherwise participate as coach, manager or umpire under the influence of any legal or illegal substance, that is considered to have the ability to effect behavior or decision making, or could otherwise jeopardize the safety of the players and spectators.
